CUMULATIVE TEN-YEAR INDEX
1974-1983

Compiled by I. A. Portner

The following listings bring up to date the cumulative fifty-year index compiled by Anita G. Dente and issued as Italica 52: 4 (1975).

Each article and book review published in Italica in the last ten years has been assigned a number in the Author Index to which subsequent entries refer. In cases of cooperative authorship, bibliographical information is furnished alphabetically by author, whereas multiple contributions by individual authors are listed in order of chronological appearance.

In the Index of Books Reviewed, in those instances where more than one work by an individual author has been reviewed, titles are entered in alphabetical order.

Books prominently mentioned in Review Articles have been listed by author in the Index of Books Reviewed.

The Subject Index is intended to assist the reader in conveniently locating the principal authors and topics discussed in the articles and review articles listed in the Author Index.

The Index of Special Subjects provides bibliographical information concerning directories, obituaries, reports, and other items not listed in the Author Index.
